Response to Amendment

1. The amendment dated 10/31/2005 has been fully considered and entered into the Record. Claim 1 stands amended and claims 27 and 28 have been canceled. The new limitation set forth in amended claim 1 contains no new matter. The rejection of claims 1, 3-5, 7-16 and 20-26 under 35 U.S.C. § 103 (a) as being unpatentable over Nishikawa et al. (US 2002/0164455) as evidenced by Romanowski (US 2004/0071916) in view of Renz et al. (US 6,187,845) has been withdrawn as the applied art fails to teach a pressure sensitive adhesive based on a poly(meth)acrylate or silicone.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over DiZio et al. (US 5,990,238) in view of Romanowski (US 2004/0071916) and in further view of Renz et al. (US 6,187,845) for reasons substantially set forth in the Office Action dated 8/1/2005. The new limitation set forth in amended claim 1 is met by DiZio, which teaches the use of acrylic esters (methyl acrylate) and methacrylic esters (ethyl methacrylate) (col. 10, lines 34-44).

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP

Art Unit: 1771

§ 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
